Dear Friends,
The New Year has arrived, but it seems as though 2018 flew by. Perhaps that's just how we all feel about time as we get to a certain age.

Time is something we aren't stingy with here at Elmhurst. A moment of kindness, a few extra minutes to listen to a resident talk about the past, a comment to let someone know how becoming the new hairdo is, a willingness to carry packages to a resident's room as they anticipate the contents. All this is who we are at Elmhurst, and more.

In the new year, I hope everyone shares their time and talents with one another with the spirit of kindness in every action and word. We look forward to good things happening at Elmhurst, a great place to call home.

Happy 2019 - Jamie
